Rice Cakes
Wash one and a half cups of rice, place in saucepan.
Two quarts of boiling water.
One teaspoon of salt.
Add the rice slowly and cook until soft and the water is absorbed. Now cool the rice, place three cups of the cooked rice in small bowl and place in bowl in the refrigerator to be used in the rice fritters for the Monday breakfast. Allow two cups of cooked rice for veal loaf. Place the balance of the rice in mixing bowl and add:
One-half cup of finely chopped parsley.
One-quarter cup of finely chopped green pepper.
Two well-beaten eggs.
One and one-half cups of flour.
Two level tablespoons of baking powder.

Mix well and form in flat cakes and brown in hot fat. Serve garnished with bacon and with maple syrup.
These cakes are made flat in the hand and a size between the muffin and the griddle cake. Use a griddle-cake turner to turn the cakes. Cook in the hot fat and drain on soft paper to absorb the excess of fat.

Veal Loaf
Place two pounds of cooking veal in saucepan and add:
One onion, minced fine.
One teaspoon of poultry seasoning.
Two cups of cold cooked rice.
Two well-beaten eggs.
Mix well to blend and turn in deep, well-greased loaf-shape pan and pat smooth; sprinkle the top with coarse breadcrumbs and bake with three tablespoons of melted shortening and bake in moderate oven for fifty minutes. Use just about one-half of the loaf for the dinner. To prepare the cutlets, mold the left-over veal loaf into cutlets and roll in flour; then dip in beaten egg and milk and roll in fine breadcrumbs and fry in deep fat.

Pimento Sauce
Prepare cream sauce, using about two cups and add:
Two red peppers, chopped fine.
One-half cup of melted butter.
One-quarter cup of finely chopped parsley.
Beat well to blend and heat slowly to boiling point.

WHAT'S WHAT
By Helen Decie

In a former age it would have been considered unpardonably rude for a man to take another man's dancing partner from him while the dance was in progress. Other times, other manners. Today the "cut-in" is merely an indication of a girl's popularity and of a man's complimentary recognition of it.

Somebody is dancing with Harry Robinson is dancing with Harry Robinson. But cut-in is not cutting in, taps Harry between the shoulders. Harry immediately surrenders his partner, and either refrains from dancing for the time being, or cuts in on another man's dancing partner. Sometimes a girl will have as many as four or five cutting-in partners who cut in should be known to the fact that a man who has not been introduced attempts it, the girl has the right to decline to dance with him.

JUST AS IT HAPPENED
A picture makes every story more convincing because of the evidence it bears of what actually happened. You will find the most interesting and up-to-date news in the picture section of the Sunday Public Ledger. It's a habit. —Ed.
